

AUSTRALIAN STUDENT VISA REQUIREMENTS.

To study in Australia, you will usually need to obtain an Australian Student Visa (subclass 500). If you would like to come to Australia for a short study tour, you may be eligible for a visitor's visa instead, which has less stringent requirements.

1. ACCEPTANCE INTO AN APPROVED COURSE AND ENGLISH LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY

Dolph Business School is a CRICOS approved provider (03642G). This means we are approved to enrol international students to study in Australia! You will need to be accepted into one of our CRICOS approved courses to be able to apply for an Australian student visa. You must also have scored a minimum of 5.5 on your English Academic IELTS unless you are from Canada, Ireland, New Zealand, the UK, or the US.

3. FINANCIAL EVIDENCE

The Australian Government's Department of Home Affairs may require students from certain countries that you have sufficient funds to cover your tuition fees, travel expenses (flight costs) and living costs for the intended period of stay for you and any dependents (if applicable). This requirement may vary depending on which country you are a citizen of. In most cases, you will have to show that you have a minimum of AUD$20,290 for yourself, AUD$7,100 for your partner, and AUD$3,040 for each child (if applicable).

5. OVERSEAS STUDENT HEALTH COVER (OSHC)

All international students are required to hold an OSHC policy during their stay in Australia unless you are a citizen of Belgium or Norway. Students from Sweden who have purchased health insurance through CSN International or Kammarkollegiet will not need to purchase the OSHC. Dolph Business School can help you compare and purchase the required OSHC. Speak to us today!

2. YOU ARE A GENUINE TEMPORARY ENTRANT

You must be able to show that your intentions in Australia are temporary and for the purpose of study. Scroll down to find out what you should include in this statement.

4. OF GOOD HEALTH AND CHARACTER

Some applicants may be required to provide the Department of Home Affairs with a police clearance certificate to attest to their good character. Applicants may also be requested to undertake a medical check-up to show that they are in good health.
